

THE NEWS.

Mr. Grant has been invited to the ball to be given to Prince Arthur in Canada.

John Quincy, an old resident of Little Rock, died at his residence in that city on Saturday last.

It is reported that Miss Hesse has left the Paragana troops. She sang and played not wisely, but too well.

Ralph Waldo Emerson is to lecture at Harvard on "The Natural History of the Intellect," including maggot of the brain.

Charles Sumner, Horace Greeley and H. B. F. have been elected honorary members of the French "Universal Peace League."

Antonio Carrasco, at this moment the sen. pastor of the Central Protestant Church of Madrid, is said to be the most eloquent Spanish preacher of the day.

Mrs. Rogers, formerly Miss Charlotte Thompson, has returned to her home in Montgomery, Ala. Her California engagement was most successful.

A Lynchburg paper is warm in its praises of a new invention which it contends "will revolutionize the manufacture of tobacco."

The Gazette says the principal of free schools gains ground in the city. It is estimated that the late Confederate General, Sibley, Loring and Beauregard are to become generals in the army of the Viceroy of Egypt, at a salary of $50,000 a year.

The contractors of the Memphis, El Paso and Pacific Railroad anticipate no scarcity of hands, unless Chinese labor, which they have been using, is considered, as more costly than any other.

A German theatrical review says that if Bouffault lived and wrote in Germany, his income would be only one-fifth of what it is now; and if he were a Frenchman it would be three times as large.

We learn that a gentleman is in Austin, Texas, to introduce Mexican laborers into that State. He proposes to furnish them with food, clothing, and without cost of delivery to those who may employ them.

The widow of General John Bowen is making arrangements to have the remains of her husband removed to the Port Gibson (Miss.) cemetery, over which the 23d Mississippi regiment of Bowen's friends, intend to erect a suitable monument.

Vienna has now thirteen large daily papers which are published daily, and which have a circulation of twenty-five thousand copies, and yield to proprietors every year a net profit of a hundred and fifty thousand florins.

The retirement of our friend Colonel John M. Harrell from the editorial chair of the Memphis Appeal, is universally regretted by the press of Arkansas and of the South. He is a general and brave warrior, and a great journalist.

The Arkadelphia (Ark.) Standard says that on Wednesday last, a most cold blooded murder was committed about six miles from the city of Military Road, near the residence of W. A. Trigg, Esq., upon the body of Calvin C. Clark, late of Bell County, Texas.

The Ultramontans in Paris say that Bishop Dupanloup, of Orleans, who was formerly one of their favorites, but whom they have lately sided with the decided stand he took against the infallibility of the Pope, is too fond of the winecup, and of even worse habits.

The business of bookbinding on the Kennebec river, in Maine, between Richmond and Bangor, is carried on actively. Large gangs of men are at work, and the ice taken out is about fifteen inches thick, and apparently of good quality.

A bill just passed the Pennsylvania Senate which provides that where witnesses in cases of forgery, perjury or other crimes, are called or absent themselves, and refuse to testify, they shall be guilty of misdemeanor, and punished by a fine of $200 and imprisonment two years, or one both, in the discretion of the court.

Joseph Wesley Hagar, who died on Monday, was the third of the brothers of the great publishing firm. He was at first a printer, and then a publisher, and was one of the founders of the Memphis Appeal.

When the Sub-Treasury began to receive the five-cent nickel coin a few weeks ago, it was found necessary to find that a large number had the appearance of counterfeit. Some of these coins were sent to the Philadelphia mint for examination. Mr. James Pollock, Director of the mint, has written to Mr. Hagar that the coins are genuine, and are of the same color.

This is caused by the presence of zinc. Mr. Hagar's testimony. He writes also that he is ready to testify with all kinds of evidence, and that he is bringing out the facts as they are.

Mr. Hagar, one of the most skillful mechanics in Nashville, received a patent on a new method of building railroads. The invention is that of a continuous way for railroads, in which the rails are laid on a bed of concrete, and are held in place by a series of small pillars.

On Wednesday, Mr. John Hinkins, of Red Clay, has been named as Captain of the 10th Tennessee Cavalry, and two brothers, John and Taylor, of Cleveland, went on a ducking expedition to the river. They were some three miles above Harrisburg, in the afternoon Captain Hinkins shot at the middle of the river, and the other two shot at the shore.

Joe Taylor and Mr. Hinkins, who were shot at the shore, were rescued by the other shore. Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Crimes and Casualties.

A special dispatch to the Nashville Banner, dated Springfield, February 18th, says: "At about five o'clock this evening our town was thrown into the most intense excitement by a most terrible shooting and killing of Mrs. R. H. Bibb, by her cousin, Thos. Hock, residing at the Paragana troops. She sang and played not wisely, but too well."

Ralph Waldo Emerson is to lecture at Harvard on "The Natural History of the Intellect," including maggot of the brain.

Charles Sumner, Horace Greeley and H. B. F. have been elected honorary members of the French "Universal Peace League."

Antonio Carrasco, at this moment the sen. pastor of the Central Protestant Church of Madrid, is said to be the most eloquent Spanish preacher of the day.

Mrs. Rogers, formerly Miss Charlotte Thompson, has returned to her home in Montgomery, Ala. Her California engagement was most successful.

A Lynchburg paper is warm in its praises of a new invention which it contends "will revolutionize the manufacture of tobacco."

The Gazette says the principal of free schools gains ground in the city. It is estimated that the late Confederate General, Sibley, Loring and Beauregard are to become generals in the army of the Viceroy of Egypt, at a salary of $50,000 a year.

The contractors of the Memphis, El Paso and Pacific Railroad anticipate no scarcity of hands, unless Chinese labor, which they have been using, is considered, as more costly than any other.

The retirement of our friend Colonel John M. Harrell from the editorial chair of the Memphis Appeal, is universally regretted by the press of Arkansas and of the South. He is a general and brave warrior, and a great journalist.

The Arkadelphia (Ark.) Standard says that on Wednesday last, a most cold blooded murder was committed about six miles from the city of Military Road, near the residence of W. A. Trigg, Esq., upon the body of Calvin C. Clark, late of Bell County, Texas.

The Ultramontans in Paris say that Bishop Dupanloup, of Orleans, who was formerly one of their favorites, but whom they have lately sided with the decided stand he took against the infallibility of the Pope, is too fond of the winecup, and of even worse habits.

The business of bookbinding on the Kennebec river, in Maine, between Richmond and Bangor, is carried on actively. Large gangs of men are at work, and the ice taken out is about fifteen inches thick, and apparently of good quality.

A bill just passed the Pennsylvania Senate which provides that where witnesses in cases of forgery, perjury or other crimes, are called or absent themselves, and refuse to testify, they shall be guilty of misdemeanor, and punished by a fine of $200 and imprisonment two years, or one both, in the discretion of the court.

Joseph Wesley Hagar, who died on Monday, was the third of the brothers of the great publishing firm. He was at first a printer, and then a publisher, and was one of the founders of the Memphis Appeal.

When the Sub-Treasury began to receive the five-cent nickel coin a few weeks ago, it was found necessary to find that a large number had the appearance of counterfeit. Some of these coins were sent to the Philadelphia mint for examination. Mr. James Pollock, Director of the mint, has written to Mr. Hagar that the coins are genuine, and are of the same color.

This is caused by the presence of zinc. Mr. Hagar's testimony. He writes also that he is ready to testify with all kinds of evidence, and that he is bringing out the facts as they are.

Mr. Hagar, one of the most skillful mechanics in Nashville, received a patent on a new method of building railroads. The invention is that of a continuous way for railroads, in which the rails are laid on a bed of concrete, and are held in place by a series of small pillars.

On Wednesday, Mr. John Hinkins, of Red Clay, has been named as Captain of the 10th Tennessee Cavalry, and two brothers, John and Taylor, of Cleveland, went on a ducking expedition to the river. They were some three miles above Harrisburg, in the afternoon Captain Hinkins shot at the middle of the river, and the other two shot at the shore.

Joe Taylor and Mr. Hinkins, who were shot at the shore, were rescued by the other shore. Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

Mr. Taylor was barely able to pull himself out to the bank, while Mr. Hinkins, after catching a branch and vainly endeavoring to extricate himself, fell back, and was rescued by the other shore.

WASHINGTON.

The Political Disabilities Bill--Terrible Sufferings on the Plains.

WASHINGTON, February 19.—The most important event of the day in Congress was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

THE LOUISVILLE BRIDGE.

Its Rise, Progress and Completion--A Sketch of the Structure.

Importance of the Work to the Trade and Travel of the North and South.

An Unbroken Road from New Orleans to New York by Way of Louisville.

From the Louisville Courier-Journal of Friday.

February 18, 1870. The completion of the great bridge over the Ohio river at this point, one of the most stupendous enterprises of the age, is a reality, and is so announced, and the structure opened as a public highway. In magnitude and importance it is second to no other in the history of the world.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the delegation from the State of Texas, who were expelled from the House of Representatives in 1865. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 40 nays.

Another important event of the day was the passage of the bill for the relief of the political disabilities of the members of the